Strayed or stolen—One white black sow, white spot on side next to the fence, left hind shoulder broke just above the right forefoot. The last time she was seen was just below Bob Payne's house where D. K. Nunley shelled three ears of corn last fall. Finder will please call at Sam Bates' home at High Peak, Orme, and receive reward.
If you want to see Daddy Bates, Will McArthur and Geo. Payne grin ask them how long it took them to get behind the breastworks.
Shakerag is booming.
Mr. Gaines Harris said he was tired of Orme. He said he was going back to Trenton, Ga., and help Bank and Kensello roll pumpkins.
Weary Willie.

R. F. Tittle vs.
Ben Coats
Before D. S. Long, a Justice of the Peace in and for Marion County, Tenn.
At this case, it appearing by affidavit that the defendant, Ben Coats, is justly indebted to the plaintiff and is a non-resident of the State so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served on him, and an original attachment having been levied on his property, it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Sequachee Valley News, a newspaper published in the town of Sequachee, for four successive weeks, commanding the said Ben Coats to appear before me or some other acting Justice of the Peace, at my dwelling house in the third civil district of said county, on the 7th day of April, 1916, and make defense to said suit against him, or it will be proceeded with ex parte.
This March 8, 1916.

Miss Thelma Newsom is on the sick list this week.
Mrs. Beatrice Anderson is still in the hospital, but is slowly improving.
Come on, "Kentucky Jim," we like to read your pieces as we think we know you. I'm almost sure you were in the crowd that ate the grapes at Jim Pennington's last summer.
Well, "Uncle Blue," as I saw in last week's paper where you said you were not throwing off on the holiness people and that they surely preached the Bible and practiced what they preached. I want to say not all that claim this wonderful experience live it, but I thank God that true Christians are living it, and if you will just read Acts 2:4, you will find where we get our wonderful salvation plan. Turn to Romans and find the 8th chapter, where it says we must not have any condemnation in our souls. Then go to John and you will find that there will be mockers in the last days, and they shall mock us and tell all manner of things on God's children. I know when I read the story about the sisters dressing like angels that it was not so because I am in the persecuted way, and am truly glad God has opened my eyes to the true gospel. Now, Jesus said we would be persecuted and we are looking for it and it does not hurt us. We are sorry for a pain for the ones who do us that way for we know they do not know what they do. Baby Doll.
